Officials Probe Circumstances Of Man's Death

John F. Norris, 64, Of Neshannock Township Found Dead In Kitchen

HAD SEVERAL WOUNDS ON HEAD

State Police, Sheriff Frank L. Coen, and Deputy Coroner Charles E. Allen, are continuing an investigation today into the circumstances surrounding the death of John Franklin Norris, aged 64 years, of Edgewood avenue extension, Neshannock township, whose body was found in a pool of blood in the kitchen of his home about 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

The body was discovered by Billy Ward, aged 16 years, of Falls avenue, Neshannock township, who with David Norris, son of the deceased, and David Withers, a neighbor youth, several years older, had been out for a ride in Withers' car. They called Clyde Houston, who resides next door, and he in turn notified Constable Theodore Altman, who called a doctor. Mr. Norris was pronounced dead by the doctor, and Deputy Coroner Allen was summoned.

Foul Play Suspicions
After viewing the surroundings, Deputy Coroner Allen was suspicious that Mr. Norris might have met with foul play, as there was a semi-circular wound on his scalp, which looked as if he had been struck by some sharp instrument and he was also battered about the mouth.

Investigation by the authorities revealed that Mr. Norris had been seen by his son, Don Norris, aged 23 years, and Gerald Spiker, aged 21 years, of 600 Sampson street, who had been riding around on their motorcycle. They had gotten

Pa Newc Observes

An unusual sight was observed by one of the Pa Newc boys in his travels over the week end. Out at Castlewood, near the Harmony Baptist church a flock of pheasant hens, 12 in number were seen slowly walking along the roadside. The scene made a very pretty sight.

Sunday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, the little rain accompanied with some cool breezes was very welcome as a temporary relief from the sweltering heat, and lowered the temperature within an hour by ten degrees. The bulk of the rainstorm seemed to be to the northeast.

H. E. Shull, R. D. 7, North Beaver township, comes in with another fall hollyhock story. Mr. Shull reports his plant, which has one flower and 30 buds, is 12 feet nine inches tall.

New Castle and Lawrence county appear embarked upon the fourth week of the season's torrid wave. Few residents can remember anything in the way of a continuous heat wave that approaches the present extended period.

A runaway truck in the vicinity of East Washington and Court streets Sunday evening caused quite a bit of excitement in that area. After damaging a parked car and leveling one of the parking meters, the truck finally came to a stop with no one being injured, fortunately.

Traffic in the downtown section of the city Sunday evening was unusually heavy. At times the stream of cars was solid from the Public Square to the Croton avenue traffic light on East Washington street.

Three U.S. Soldiers Tell Of Experiences While In Russian Custody

By MARION HUGHES (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

SEOUL, Aug. 25.—Three young U. S. Soldiers, held without explanation for twelve days by Russian authorities in northern Korea, related their strange experiences today after being released unharmed at the Soviet-American border in central Korea.

One of the GIs, 19-year-old John D. Hope of Seattle, Wash., said the Russians had given him "Vodka," "thinking maybe I'd get drunk." He added with a wry smile: "I didn't." Hope and T-Sgt. Tommy F. Pugsley, 19, of Renton, Wash., and Pfc. Gerald P. Geffen, of Port Chester, N. Y., were captured by the Russians Aug. 12 when they strayed across the 38th parallel which separates the American and Russian occupation zones in Korea. Their detention by the Russians brought two stiff protests from Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, commander of U. S. forces in South Korea.

In Full Uniform
In full uniform and on a routine mission, the GIs were inspecting a telephone line running from United States headquarters at Seoul to Russian headquarters at Pyongyang.

They related at a news conference that they had expected to find a border sign at a crossroads near N. Y., were captured by the Russians.

United States Officials Anxiously Await Developments Along Greek Border

HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF AID ARE SENT

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—United States officials today anxiously awaited developments along the Greek border in the anticipation that there may be a showdown of Russian intentions in the Balkans this week.

From now until the United Nations General Assembly meets in New York on September 15 is regarded generally as the critical time for the involved area.

Frankly, officials feel no great assurance over the situation other than that heavy shipments of aid to Greece in the form of military and transport equipment may stave off the intensification of guerrilla effort on the northern borders.

If the Communist-dominated Russian satellites along the Greek border can be persuaded more openly giving strong military aid to the Greek guerrilla forces in sufficient quantity to threaten the Athens government until the General Assembly meeting, many experts believe that the crisis will have been passed. The United States then might find itself in control of the situation.

May Be Pushed
However, some think it possible that every effort will be made by the satellites, under Moscow guidance, to push matters to the extent that full civil war breaks out or the Athens government is overthrown before the assembly meeting.

It is doubted that the satellites have either the power or the time to bring about this turn of events. It is also doubted that Moscow would want to be in this position, although recent events have intensified open hostility to the United States in southeastern Europe.

United States concern over the Balkans was indicated by developments over the week end.

Man-Made Rain Helps Bring Relief To Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—(INS)—A Chicago Herald-American plane was credited today with bringing cool relief to a sweltering metropolis by sowing dry ice in the clouds to produce man-made rain.

It was the first time in history that such man-made respite from the heat wave has been accomplished in a major metropolis.

Gordon Dunn, federal weather forecaster who was in charge of the weather station at the Chicago municipal airport at the time of the sowing operation yesterday, declared:

Saw Rain Develop
"I personally watched the operation from my tower from 2:30 p. m. to 3 p. m. and saw rain develop. It was the heaviest rain noted before 6:30 p. m."

"The Herald-American plane very definitely accelerated the building up of cloud precipitation by sowing

Mayor Proclaims Legion Week In New York City

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Mayor William O'Dwyer today proclaimed "American Legion Week" in New York as Legion Commander Paul H. Griffith warned the present situation in Greece could lead to world war and urged Congress to reconvene immediately to insure our national defense.

The vanguard of an expected 200,000 Legionnaires and their families arrived over the week end, as did Griffith, for the first Legion convention in New York since 1937. The convention is scheduled for four days, August 28 through August 31.

Griffith issued his warning at a news conference at which he also disclosed he still hopes President Truman will address the opening session of the convention Thursday night in Madison Square Garden.

Mr. Truman previously said he could not attend because of his commitment to fly to the Inter-American conference at Petropolis, Brazil. Griffith said, however, he saw the President on Friday, and again urged him to delay his flight and the Chief Executive did not definitely refuse.

Firemen Delegates Will Meet Tuesday

What Los Angeles Critics Say About Miss Truman's Debut

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Music critics of four Los Angeles dailies, although generally pleased with Miss Margaret Truman's Saturday Hollywood Bowl debut, felt today that the president's daughter needs more instruction and training to establish herself as an opera singer.

Crowd Of 15,000
The 23-year-old singer drew a crowd of 15,000 persons, the second largest of the season, who rewarded her with tremendous ovations and called her back for two encores and ten curtain calls.

Albert Goldberg of the Times termed it a "generally satisfactory performance" and praised Miss Truman's courage and poise. He wrote:

"Interpretatively, Miss Truman is not yet far beyond the student stage. Her main preoccupation at present is with technical problems and she is inclined to let the color and meaning of her songs shift for themselves."

Goldberg said her voice was promising but needed skill and care in its guidance.

Audience Liked Her
Patterson Greene of the Los Angeles Examiner said the audience cheered Miss Truman because "she was defending her individuality and they liked her for it." Greene stated:

"In Miss Truman's favor were a voice of considerable inherent position and a considerable inherent position."

GOOD SINGING FEATURES MEETING

Three hundred and fifty men from the various churches of New Castle and the immediate surrounding community gathered in the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning for a great rally which it is hoped by its sponsors, the Men's class of the First Congregational church and the McKinney class of the First Presbyterian church, will result in a unity of Christian effort during the coming year.

Welcome Is Given
Paul Perry, president of the Men's class of the First Presbyterian church, introduced Griff Thomas of the Men's class of the Congregational church, who welcomed the great audience which filled the church auditorium to capacity. He outlined the purpose of the gathering.

Inspirational singing was led by L. B. Round, song leader of the McKinney class, and the men of the Congregational church led in several favorite Welsh hymns, which were much enjoyed. E. E. Bran-

Tropical Storm Is Diminishing

Storm That Struck Near Galveston Is Heading Inland—Damage Small

GALVESTON, Tex., Aug. 25.—(INS)—A tropical storm of near hurricane intensity that struck near Galveston yesterday headed inland today with diminishing force.

Only minor damage was reported, and none was injured. Barometers were reported rising throughout the area, indicating that the storm was blowing out.

Several houses were blown down at Dickinson, northwest of Galveston. The Texas department of public safety said the storm was moving inland with diminishing force.

Galveston Prepared
Texas City across the bay, where more than 500 persons were killed in a fire-explosion last April 16, was in line of the storm, but no reports of damage had been received at a late hour last night.

Galveston residents, remembering previous storm disasters, were prepared for the high winds of gale-like proportions that lashed the city, reaching more than 70 miles an hour velocities in some sections.

Storm warnings were hoisted from High Island to Lake Charles, La., and high tides were expected throughout the area.

Britain Draws 150 Million More

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(INS)—The British today withdrew another 150 million dollars from their three billion, 750 million dollar U. S. loan. This leaves 550 million dollars worth of credit remaining for Britain under the loan agreement.

Last week the British also drew down 150 million, and a third withdrawal will be made on Aug. 29. All three withdrawals were agreed upon just before Britain announced last week that it would halt temporarily any further drains on its dwindling dollar credit.

Following the Aug. 29 withdrawal, 400 million dollars will remain. That sum is to be frozen pending a decision between the United States and Britain on how long the British suspension of sterling convertibility must last.

Tsaldaris Makes Attempt To Form Cabinet In Greece

Police And Military Garrisons On Alert For Coup By Communists

CABINET FORMING APPEARS DIFFICULT

(BULLETIN)

ATHENS, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Police and military garrisons were placed on a standing alert today against an officially feared Communist coup taking advantage of the country's temporary lack of a government.

The order was issued by War Minister George Statos coincident with heightened guerrilla attacks in the north.

Premier-Designate Constantine Tsaldaris renewed his efforts to form a government to replace the cabinet toppled Saturday by the resignation of three middle-of-the-road leaders in protest over the conduct of the campaign against the guerrillas.

Meets Major Rebuff
Tsaldaris met a major rebuff when liberal leader Themistocles Sophoulis refused to pledge his party to cooperation with the former's pro-royalist populist party.

The 58-year-old Sophoulis rejected the offer.

Russia Sends Note On Korea

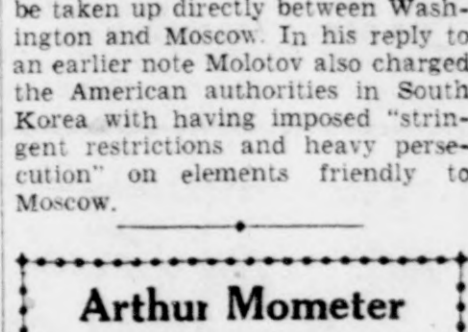

Contents Of Note Not Revealed By State Department Spokesman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Lincoln C. White, State department spokesman, said today the United States has received a note from Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov on the Korean situation, but declined to reveal its contents.

White said that the note was under study and that no comment could be made for the time being. The Molotov note responded to one sent on August 11 by Secretary of State Marshall asking that a report on the joint U. S.-Soviet discussions on Korea be submitted by August 21 if no agreement had been reached at that time.

Molotov accepted that proposal and the matter is now expected to be taken up directly between Washington and Moscow. In his reply to an earlier note Molotov also charged the American authorities in South Korea with having imposed "stringent restrictions and heavy persecution" on elements friendly to Moscow.

Whether it's wet or whether it's dry, and whether the sun is hot, it makes no difference, it seems, to the grass, not a whit, not a little or jot, it keeps on a growing on warm days or cool, with neerer a thought for the weather; and always, it seems, it will have to be cut when friends want to gather together. Whenever you're busy it splits on its hands and apparently hops right along, by the time you are ready to take some time off the lawn is in high, going strong. So I fooled it, I did, and I don't mow the grass, and whenever I want the job done, I just mention the fact to a lad that I know—the weather is up, ninety-one.

Prices Boosted By Ford Motor Co.

DETROIT, Aug. 25.—(INS)—The Ford Motor Co. today joined other automotive firms seeking to offset increased wage and material costs by raising its car prices from $20 to $97.

The boost, an average of 42 per cent, is effective immediately. President Henry Ford announced the increase explaining that "this action has been dictated by the simple necessity of keeping the company on a sound economic basis."

Ford cited increased costs in materials, wages and salaries as the largest cause of the new price tags. He added that even with the new prices the company would not be able to recover the full amount of increased costs for the remainder of 1947.

The Liberal leader explained that he did not wish to become a "prisoner of the right" by joining a Populist-led coalition.

sibilities, a genuine fervor for song, a musical nature, a winning stage presence and serious approach to her art.

"Miss Truman's performance, though pleasant, was not distinguished.

"Her shortcomings can perhaps be charged off, not to lack of innate ability, but to faulty schooling... good technique can be imparted by good teachers."

Rather Critical

Music Critic Owen Collin of the Herald-Express said her training through her formative years was responsible for her voice appearing flat and having no appreciable vibrato or overtones.

"Her high voice registered in extremely weak and where depth is desired in certain phases her voice was shallow.

"On the favorable side of the picture is an inherent sweetness of voice, stage presence, fair phrasing and a coloratura showing some promise."

Naturally Pleading

Mildred Norton of the Daily News said Miss Truman's voice was of a naturally pleasing quality.

"It is neither strident, shrill nor affected. Unfortunately her performance proved her ill-equipped for any vocal exhibition outside of the most kindly and intimate of gatherings."

Miss Norton observed that chiefly prominent was Miss Truman's "inability to focus her tones throughout her entire register, which is itself undefined and hovering ambiguously around a mezzo-soprano range."

Miss Truman was the guest of honor at a glittering reception at which homage was paid by the top names in the world of art, motion pictures and Los Angeles society following her concert.

Miss Truman said she had no immediate plans and would stay in Los Angeles indefinitely.

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER!

"In diving, you practice and try until you find the forms and styles that suit you best," explains Champion Mildred O'Donnell.

IT'S TRUE IN DIVING...
EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER!
...AND IN SMOKING TOO.
THE CIGARETTE FOR ME IS CAMEL!

Mildred O'Donnell
DIVING CHAMPION

More people are smoking CAMELS than ever before!

YOUR "T-ZONE" WILL TELL YOU...
T for Taste...
T for Throat...
That's your proving ground for any cigarette. See if Camels don't suit your "T-Zone" to a T!

Yes, experience during the wartime shortage taught smokers the differences in cigarette quality!

DIVING Champion Mildred O'Donnell hasn't forgotten the wartime shortage of cigarettes. "I never realized there were such differences in cigarettes until the shortage," she recalls. "That's when I really learned what cigarette suits me best—Camel." Many a smoker had the same experience, and reached the same conclusion—with the result that more people are smoking Camels than ever before.

But, no matter how great the demand: We don't tamper with Camel quality. Only choice tobaccos, properly aged, and blended in the time-honored Camel way, are used in Camels.

According to a recent Nationwide survey:
MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS
than any other cigarette

Three nationally known independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors—in every branch of medicine—to name the cigarette they smoked. More doctors named Camel than any other brand.

IT WAS NO FUN, the cigarette shortage; but it was a real experience, smoking many different brands. That's when smoker after smoker learned the meaning of the phrase, "Camels suit my 'T-Zone' to a T."

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

It is too bad that so many millions of people whose countries belong to the United Nations don't know how to read.

I am sure they would be interested in the recently published plans for the magnificent United Nations capital on which some eighty millions of dollars are to be spent. There are poverty and starvation throughout the world. Untold thousands, clad in rags, are exposed to the elements, and haven't the barest necessities of life—necessities that lift the human being above the status of animals.

But don't worry. The United Nations delegates won't have to starve or to go without all the luxuries that technicians, decorators, caterers and eighty million dollars are able to provide.

"Game courts," reads one of the reports, "clubhouses, restaurants, scattered throughout the capital, roof top and riverside terraces, lounges, a gymnasium and a theater are tentatively planned for the international assemblage."

In the countries these gentlemen represent there are extreme heat and extreme cold. There are plagues and insects and vermin. People suffer and die from exposure to the elements without having any protection from them.

But not so the United Nations eighty-million dollar capital.

"United Nations workers from the tropical and Arctic countries," says the report, "will find out that the temperature in the permanent headquarters buildings can be adapted to meet their particular preferences."

"The promise of 'push-button' weather was made today by air-conditioning engineers who are planning to install in the future world capital a heating and cooling system which can be individually controlled. Summer temperatures, the experts said, will be kept at 78 degrees and winter levels will range from 70 to 72 degrees."

And to cap the climax, read this paragraph:

"An unexpected development is the complete segregation given to the delegates. Mr. Lie's report emphasizes that the delegates will have their own lounges, bars, reading rooms and even entrances, so they can enter and leave directly and inconspicuously. Delegates arriving by car will have a private entrance, safe from contact with the public. The delegates' lounge will be isolated from the busy atmosphere of the city."

The report overlooks one convenience. No dark glasses will be furnished to the delegates so that, when they visit their own countries, they will not see the misery and suffering of their peoples.

Otherwise they will be able to sit in their gorgeous World Capital in splendid isolation, drinking the best of liquors, eating the finest of foods, smoking the most expensive cigars, enjoying a baronial splendor—eighty million dollars' worth, most of which we will probably have to provide—completely oblivious of what is really going on in the world.

And, unless there is a complete change in the attitude of many of these illustrious delegates, the World Capital, like the Palace of the League of Nations, will stand as another monument to the folly of man.

RABIES

Sometimes rabies is called hydrophobia. It is bad, no matter what it is called.

It is a disease of dogs mostly. A person may get it if bitten by a dog which has the disease.

Strange to say, it is a disease largely due to carelessness. Stray dogs or ownerless dogs are largely responsible.

It cost a lot of money to deal with the stray dog problem.

We allow these dogs to multiply and then spend a lot of money to catch them. Pretty wise, eh?

If a dog bites a person, it should not be killed right away. It should be kept under the observation and a veterinary consulted.

If a dog is infected with rabies it will usually show signs of the disease in a few days.

That is one time when it is better to make haste slowly.

ABOUT GLAMOR

She may be beautiful to see. But beauty disappears. And more enduring charm must be to last throughout the years.

Though she be lovely to the eye There's more than sight to feed. And all men find as time goes by 'Tis tenderness they need.

Though beauty is all men's desire— And proud of it they are— 'Tis more than beauty they require When trouble comes their way.

Behind the charm must patience lie. And understanding, too. And love must endless care supply To last a lifetime through.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILD'S FIRST DAY AT SCHOOL

From now till the first day of school, not much time is left to prepare your child to feel comfortable out of your presence.

For those children not tied too closely to their mothers, and having had abundant experience at play with other children of their age, the first day at school can prove a glorious adventure. For many other children not so well weaned emotionally from the mother or socialized at play so well, it may be a very trying experience. Also it may be a day fraught with deep anxiety for the mother.

Physically Safe

For making your child physically safe and helping him adapt himself to a very strange situation on his first day at school; for becoming acquainted yourself with the teacher in whose care you entrust your little child, you probably will go with him to school on his first day. If it is not many blocks away it were better for you to walk than to take him in your car, so you will know of the dangerous crossings and show him how to make them safely. You also might wish to go with him to and from school for several more days till you feel sure his safety ways are pretty well established. Whether you walk or take him in the car it will be fortunate for him if you take a few neighbor children along; also good for these neighbor children.

Meeting The Teacher

When you arrive at school present your child to the teacher and encourage him to go and play at once with the other children. Don't linger. Go home very soon. If your child begs you to stay or cries after you, go promptly and without ceremony. The longer you linger, the harder it will be for your child and his teacher.

If the distance to school is short and the way not hazardous, let your child walk to school without you as soon as you have him grounded in safety ways. Don't tote him to school in a car day after day except when the weather is bad.

Walking To School

Certainly children over six or seven should not be hauled to school short distances. It is good for their physical and moral health to walk, letting them learn self-reliance.

Excepting a few youths who must travel great distances to school, where buses and trolley cars are not available, high school youths should walk during good weather. Most of them greatly need the exercise. Barring such exceptions, why should they drive to school in a car? Often they are perilous drivers and they may load up with many other youths in the car endangering their lives. The average high school student has no more real need of a car than of a rhinoceros.

Our financial position is steadily improving. We have a 4 billion 700 million surplus in prospect and $2.05 cash netted from the sale of money.

Immigrant boys deposited the money on government land and it was sold as "unclaimed surplus property."

The bees were unaware at the time that they were laboring for Uncle Sam. Any taxpayer could have told them differently.

But it's good to know that on the day September corn hit $2.63 a bushel in Chicago the attorney general declared war on price-fixing in the clutch facing field.

Food may stay a little high but replacement brake linings will soon be within the reach of every hungry consumer.

After this I hear the price-fixing probe will extend to Turkish delights monogrammed snuff boxes and possible to Pearl Derby processors.

They Say

SAN FRANCISCO—D. E. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen: "Labor should look upon the Taft-Hartley labor law as being only the first weapon of the production line, operated by vicious and vengeful forces."

TEL AVIV — Mrs. Golda Meyer, member of the Jewish Agency executive, denouncing the transfer of illegal Palestine immigrants to Germany: "Bevin (British foreign secretary Ernest Bevin) must remember he can win a battle but he will lose the war."

NEW YORK — Frank J. Taylor, president of the American Merchant Marine Institute, after a wildcat strike forced cancellation of the S. S. America's sailing: "The strike places American passengers and line services in an extremely precarious condition."

Words Of Wisdom

The man who rules his spirit, saith the voice that cannot err, is greater than the one who takes a city. If each would have dominion of himself, would govern wisely, and thus show true courage, knowledge, power, benevolence, all the princely soul of private virtues, then each would be a prince—a hero—a man in likeness of his makers. —Mrs. J. S. Hale.

From Me To You

By MESEKALL

There are still some mighty mean thieves in the world . . . and one or more were at work last week in New York City . . . One of our beautiful young ladies tripped to the altar two weeks ago and then with the man of the house they took a wedding trip to the big city. After arriving by motor car they stopped for a lunch in a downtown restaurant . . . And when they came back to their parked car what did they find? Low and behold the car had been broken into . . . and every article of luggage was gone . . . two beautiful traveling cases that the groom had presented to the bride . . . and the cases were filled with beautiful clothing . . . most of it from the hope chest which means, hand made. So what could the young couple do . . . yes, they turned around and came right back home . . . Heart breaking . . . Don't you think?

There is something about a tree, That seems like a human to me.— The struggle for life must begin With both, from the deepest,—within. The tree sends forth exploring sprouts. The child creeps, steps, with fearing doubts, And neither one can stand erect Until it feels its SELF RESPECT. So you, Who've traveled over the road, Must help the weak, to bear THEIR load.— And with a feeling, deep, Divine, Help make the Sun, for THEM, to shine. As you'd protect a human life, Assist a tree, that's knowing strife. Then, 'neath its limbs, and sheltering leaves,— There'll be a Home, for him, who grieves. —Burr McIntosh.

Bible Thought

Ascribe unto the Lord the glory due unto his Name: bring an offering, and come into his courts. Psalm 96:8.

The World and the Mud Puddles

TOO MUCH MONEY.

Certain administration spokesmen and representatives of left-wing elements keep harping on the idea that continuance of high prices, or the advent of still higher prices, will promote more inflation. High prices for one line of commodities, it is true, do tend to breed high prices for other commodities. If a worker in a shoe factory has to pay greatly increased prices for food, sooner or later he will demand higher wages for his work, with the result that shoe prices will also increase.

As a general proposition, however, these prophets of inflation have the cart before the horse. It is not high prices that make inflation, but inflation that makes high prices. In reality, prices in dollars are only relative. The real price of any commodity is properly calculated on the basis of the amount of labor or raw materials required to obtain it. The real value of a dollar is its equivalent in food, clothing, furniture, coal, automobiles, and what-not. When dollars are abundant and goods are scarce, it takes more dollars to buy less goods. This is elemental.

The inflation which we are now experiencing—and which we have experienced for some time past—is not due to the high cost of commodities, but to the law of dollars. Chiefly responsible for the present low value of the dollar is the national administration, which through unlimited spending has stuffed the banks of the country and sold to the citizens billions of dollars in bonds. Not only are financial depositors overflowing with savings and credits, but there are in circulation twenty-eight billion dollars—the greatest amount per capita in our history.

The result is the same as it would be in a market flooded by potatoes or grain. The supply of these commodities is far ahead of the demand for them, they are cheap. The same thing applies to dollars; through billions of federal outlays, billions of federal loans, excessively high payrolls in war industries, together with federal payrolls running into several billion a year, we have an excess supply of dollars. So dollars are cheap. On the other side of the picture, we are still relatively short of many essential commodities, due partly to vast exportations of goods overseas, partly to exorbitant taxes and partly to the government policy of subsidies and "support" prices.

High prices are not the cause, but the effect, of inflation. Lower prices will come only through the removal of the inflationary factors—a primary responsibility of the government.

DOUBLE WEDDING

"My sister and I plan to be married in a double wedding ceremony. We will have individual attendants. Please tell us the details, especially those of wedding procession and placing of guests in pews."

Answer: Preparations are similar to those for a single wedding. Invitations are as usual except that four names are involved instead of two, thus:

Barbara Anne
to
Mr. William Blake
and Mary Louise
Mr. Robert Martin

Usually, sister brides, in a double wedding, wear the same model dress or at least dresses similar in design. Each bride usually has her own maid or matron of honor, although they may have the same bridesmaids and ushers. Each groom has his own best man. When each has her own attendants, this is the order of the procession: The two bridesmaids proceed in the usual way with the clergyman to the head of the aisle where they await their brides, each with his best man behind him. The ushers—one-half friends of each bride—go on the aisle together. Then come the bridesmaids of the older sister, followed by her maid-of-honor, walking alone. The older bride follows, escorted by her father. Then come the bridesmaids of the younger sister, her maid-of-honor, followed by the younger bride escorted by a brother or other near relative. The ceremony, too, is a double one with responses made by each bride. The fathers lead both brides away—first the older; then the younger, after which he takes his place in the first pew beside his wife. Seat guests as usual, the bride's parents in the first pew on the left, those of the older one on the right, those of the older one on the end of the pew. When the recessional begins, the older sister and her husband go first down the aisle. The younger bride and groom follow. Attendants of the older bride come next, followed by those of the younger. The ushers are last as usual.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Big Jawn Casts His Shadow

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25.—The big hoopprint of John L. Lewis may soon be discernible again in national politics—this time on the pants' seat of a departing Cabinet minister.

Undercover indications are that J. A. ("Cap") Krug is about to be jettisoned and that Lewis will supply the propulsion force.

Two Omens Uphold Prediction

Two omens, each from an opposite side of the street, uphold this prediction. The first premonition of a Cabinet ouster came to your correspondent from persons who were very unwilling to hear such news. Lobbyists for the big mining interests last week were caught between cocktails with reports that Krug was on his way out. Their intelligence agents further reported that the White House had picked Under Secretary Oscar L. Chapman as the replacement. Mention of Chapman's name shook the mine owners out of their vacation plans. He is a former aid to ex-Secretary Ickes and a man whose known ideas about Labor and Conservation do not fit in with corporate plans for the use of natural resources. As a publicist for the mine owners put it:

"My bosses get along fine with Krug, but this Chapman is a damned New Dealer."

Other Source For Reports

The other source for reports of Krug's impending departure took the form of a mysterious caption in the United Mine Workers' Journal: "Looks like Krug is Out." The news story under the headlines did not clearly the cryptic message, but persons who know Lewis merely remarked that his shadow often marches several weeks ahead of events. It is certain that Big Jawn has a score to settle with Cap Krug, the man who takes personal credit for last winter's showdown with the UMW's chief. According to the most intimate of all possible authorities, it was Krug who persuaded Mr. Truman to go to the courts when Lewis tried to treat his government contract as a scrap of paper. It was Krug who blocked Lewis' last-minute, face-saving efforts as compromise. Later at Congressional hearings on the Centralia mine disaster, Lewis publicly demanded Krug's removal. Failing then, Big Jawn has been riding hard on the vengeance trail ever since.

No Clairvoyant Is Required

It takes no clairvoyant to see the political significance of hot weather intercourse between the White House and the nearby headquarters of the UMW. Whether Krug's fate is already decided or is merely being debated, the 250-pound secretary is living on Union time. The mortification which Lewis suffered in his two court appearances has yet to be propitiated. Mr. Truman did make some amends when he vetoed and condemned the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill, but Lewis does not consider this sufficient penance. The beefy sacrifice of "Cap" Krug seems the only hope in sight of winning Big Jawn's fickle heart away from Tom Dewey to whom it now reportedly belongs.

But Mr. Truman is also looking beyond the horizon of next year's election. He can conceivably win with or without Lewis' support, but the thought of carrying the big boss' enmity through a full presidential term is not comfortable. Lewis has already demonstrated his ability to make life in the White House a burden and a constant anxiety. It is easy to see why Harry Truman is willing to make any reasonable appeasement rather than endure another five years of Lewis' reprisals.

Not Altogether Commensurate

This attitude may not be altogether commensurate with the dignity of a Commander-in-Chief of the greatest nation on earth, but it has its practical aspects. Our commitments abroad, our bargaining power with foreign rivals, our hope of avoiding an economic set-back all rest with our ability to hit new heights of productivity. Without coal—which is to say, without Lewis—this is impossible. Big Jawn is temporarily on his good behavior, and no doubt there are persons near Mr. Truman who tell him that coddling Lewis is a presidential duty.

It is hard to gainsay such advice. Incongruous as it seems, no Cabinet officer except General Marshall can do his country more good than Lewis can do it harm. The Labor Act is not yet a proven instrument and Big Jawn has already proved himself invulnerable to it. The next election may even see the Act nullified by the defeat of its sponsors. Mr. Truman seems to favor such an event. Meanwhile, it is not surprising if he regards the expulsion of a Cabinet minister as a good investment, both in political expediency and far-looking statesmanship. It is always good luck to find a horseshoe—even when it is no more than a hoofprint in the seat of somebody else's pants.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Grave fears were entertained today that extremely serious incidents may occur at Hamburg when some 4,500 tired but determined Jews from the harried liner "Exodus" are disembarked at the last place in the whole world they wanted to go—Germany.

British authorities have made it clear that from their own viewpoint there is no alternative.

The "Exodus" Jews who remained stubbornly aboard their three ferrieships off Port De Bouc, France, embarking upon hunger strikes and otherwise insisting that for them it is a simple choice between "death or Palestine," rejected a British ultimatum giving them either French hospitality or detention in Germany.

"Crime Against Humanity"

Jewish agency executives have characterized the British attitude as a "crime against humanity."

And in some quarters at least, Britain seems to doubt her own ability to take care of the 4,500 refugees even on occupied German soil. The Palestine problem thus threatens to explode into a new major issue next week at a bombed-out port city hundreds and hundreds of miles removed from the Holy Land itself.

Coincidentally with decision to take the refugees to Hamburg, the London Daily Mail, in the course of a discussion on Britain's grave financial problems, demanded immediate evacuation of British troops from the German occupation zone.

This newspaper had many disparaging things to say about the whole occupation setup.

Decries Enormous Expense

It decried the enormous expense involved at a time when Britain's financial resources are at a dangerously low ebb.

It criticized a system which keeps about thousands of soldiers whose strength and brawn are needed in farms and factories.

It even went so far as to say that the alien condition of soldiers kept far too long from their homeland has created a situation which has made the British military "stink in the nostrils" of Europe.

Thus the atmosphere in which the Jews are to be unloaded seems hardly a promising one.

Over and above the difficulties of the British themselves in the fact that anti-Semitism is still a powerful factor in Germany.

Despite all the strenuous measures of enlightenment and reeducation that have been undertaken.

Hard Task Seen

Allied officials on every hand admit that it is a very hard task indeed for most Jews remaining in Germany to reestablish themselves—even for those who regard the German hills, forests, marshes or cities as their own native soil.

But the "Exodus" Jews are mainly from Poland. They look upon their own land as the "graveyard of Europe" and have even less love for the country that made it one. It is difficult to see them making doleful faces and gawking at the barbed-wire entrance of a concentration camp in Germany.

Union Service Well Attended Sunday

Churches United In Auditorium Of First Christian Church For Next To Last Service

Rev. J. Calvin Rose, pastor of the Second U. P. church, County Line street, in a well placed address Sunday evening in the First Christian church, on the Square, cited the reasons why "There Is Something Wrong In New Castle." The timely address was given before the union meeting of the churches and vicinity in the church auditorium, rather than on the church lawn as has been customary.

Rev. Rose enumerated many of the good things that make it conducive for citizens to live in this community, then struck at a number of the evils that tend to make it dangerous living here unless corrective measures are used. "Inward corruption in a community is a dangerous thing," stated Rev. Rose. "There is something definitely wrong in New Castle, and getting at the source of the trouble, we must place the blame largely on the homes of the city."

The well attended service was directed by Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church who also read the Scriptures and offered the evening prayer. Griff Thomas directed the audience in prayer. Special music was presented during the evening, by Ruth Weir and Frances Barnes, accompanied by Miss Martha Weir on the piano. Emma Patton was the congregational organist during the hour.

The final service of the year will be held next Sunday evening on the church lawn, when Rev. Burr R. McKnight, pastor of First Methodist Church will be heard.

Aim To Attract More Into Army

Eight-Point Plan To Make Career In Armed Forces More Appealing To Men

HARRISBURG, Aug. 19.—(INS)—The war department has proposed an eight-point program "to make the army more attractive to a career for enlisted men," according to 11th Air Force headquarters at Harrisburg.

Changes tentatively proposed by the department would:

(1) Base promotions on examinations and accomplishments.

(2) Prohibit demotions except for poor performance, no demotion—except by court martial—would be for more than one grade.

(3) Abolish technical grades in favor of specialist ratings.

(4) Establish grades of sergeants, first class sergeants, senior sergeants and master or first sergeants.

(5) Allow specialists to wear same rank as members of tactical commands except that tactical commanders would be distinguished by green loops on shoulder straps.

(6) Continue appointment of non-commissioned officers below rank of senior sergeant by unit commanders, make exams the basis for promoting senior sergeants within the force to which assigned while master and first sergeants would be chosen following examinations in the army at large.

(7) Increase warrant officers grades to four and pay scales to second lieutenant through major.

(8) Permit non-commissioned officers in first three grades to enlist for indefinite periods with privilege of resigning.

President May Not Be Able To Go To Convention

(BULLETIN)
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—The question of whether President Truman will make a personal appearance this week at the 25th convention of the American Legion remained in abeyance today.
Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughn, the president's military aid, called upon Legion Commander Paul H. Griffith this morning and explained that there is a possibility Mr. Truman may have to fly to the inter-American conference at Petropolis, Brazil.
Mr. Truman has attended sixteen Legion conventions usually as chairman of the Missouri delegation, and the Legionnaires understand he would like to attend if at all possible.

Yes, Indeed! Used Fats Are Still Needed!

says DOROTHY KIRK,
Food Editor of
Woman's Home Companion

If you've stopped saving used fats, please read this message from Secretary of Commerce W. A. Harriman. "Not only the United States but the whole world still lacks adequate supplies of fats and oils. And we in America are particularly short of industrial fats." Remember, many things we all use require industrial fats or their products. The used fats housewives turn in represent a good part of our American supply. So keep saving... keep turning in your used fats, won't you?

Chief Clerk W. A. Eakin
Ready To Pack 99 Boxes
For Election Boards

OTHER HAPPENINGS ON COURT HOUSE HILL

Within a few days, after the election ballots have been received, Chief Clerk William A. Eakin will begin his semi-annual job of packing the "gift boxes" for the election boards of the county. In the box will be ballots, specimen ballots, rules, certificates and other materials needed to conduct the election. Shortly before September 9 the packages will be sent out to the judges of elections of the various districts and after the election will be returned to Mr. Eakin again.

Conducting elections is a routine matter with Mr. Eakin by now. For nineteen years he has been doing it and whether it is a large election or a small one makes no difference. His experience of the years has qualified him to get the job done with a minimum of effort.

Mr. Eakin has been on court house hill for nearly 35 years. As a young man he was elected Register and Recorder and served two terms. Following that he served two terms as chief deputy to the Register and Recorder. For a few years he was out of the court house but was called back to serve as chief clerk to the county commissioners. He knows the court house and its routine like a book.

Permit Denied For Salary Increases

REDSTONE, Pa., Aug. 25.—(INS)—

The Redstone township school board, for years financially distressed and recipient for many years of special state legislature appropriations, has been denied permission by the State Department of Public Instruction to grant a blanket salary increase of $400 to its teaching staff.

According to a revised budget submitted to the directorate after its return from Harrisburg, the state permits only the legal mandated increments for the teachers. Since the district professed to be financially distressed, its budget had to be submitted to the state to justify its repeated applications for assistance.

The state has advanced a regular $110,000 appropriation so that the salaries could be paid.

There is speculation in Redstone about teachers possible action in view of their repeated strikes. They were the first to take such action in southwestern Pennsylvania.

In 1860 only 27 per cent of the population was over 65. By 1945 it was 7.2 per cent.

History Study In U. S. Making Blind Patriots

John Hopkins Professor Says Courses Fostering Intense Nationalism

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. — A spokesman for the National Education association was on record Monday with the assertion that history courses in American schools have tended to nurture a "blind and unthinking patriotism."

Richard E. Thursfield, associate professor of education at Johns Hopkins university and editor of the yearbook of the National Council for the Social Studies, a department of the NEA, declared that teachers must show their pupils how to become "citizens of the world."

Thursfield, writing in the yearbook issued this week, contends: "The cataclysmic changes induced by the second world war make imperative a rational approach to the study of society."

"Within this new 'one world' teachers of American history, as teachers of national history in every land must undertake with increased devotion their solemn obligation to further understanding, good will, and peace among men."

Foster Nationalism
The educator declared that school courses in history too frequently have fostered an intense nationalism.

Thursfield decried unreasoning patriotism. He attacked groups which "promote through their history teaching a bullying sort of pride of country, a passionate our-country-right-or-wrong attitude, and one hundred per cent Americanism by such devices as concealment of national shortcomings."

He urged, instead, the development of a "loyalty of reasoned affection."

Thursfield recommended that teachers instruct their classes to challenge such legends as those of George Washington and the cherry tree, Captain John Smith and Pocahontas and Queen Isabella's pawning of her jewels to finance Columbus' discovery of the new world. He observed:

"The dangers inherent to world understanding or to intelligent change in the assumption that former or present leaders, institutions or laws are infallible could be related to these or other similar legends."

One lasting impression left with the child might be that not every story associated with a person in history is ipso facto historical."

Corporal Melvin Slavich of Elm street, Bessemer, was one of 79 students who recently graduated from the Panama Canal department's non-commissioned officers leadership school, Fort Clayton, Canal Zone.

Colonel N. A. Costello commanding officer of the 33rd combat team, Fort Clayton, and commandant of the school, introduced the principal speaker, Colonel John H. Cochran, assistant chief of staff, G-3, Panama Canal department. Colonel Cochran congratulated the students on having completed the intensive four weeks course and reminded them that under the army's new promotion policy their future and advancement was limited only by their knowledge and leadership ability.

State C. Of C. Predicts Veterans May Vote Down Proposed Bonus Bonds

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Aug. 25.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce has predicted veterans may team up to vote down a proposed $500,000,000 bond issue to finance soldier bonuses. A constitutional amendment to float the sum would go before the electorate in the fall of 1949 if approved finally by the General Assembly during its regular session that year.

session ended, there were rumors that Gov. James H. Duff contemplated recommending a sales tax to pay off the bonus cost. The General Assembly has authorized payments up to $500 for the state's 1,200,000 World War II servicemen and women. The bonuses were to be figured at the rate of $10 for each month of domestic duty and $15 for service abroad.

The state health department has issued new facts adhering to the maxim that "warriors" have short-lived careers. Heart disease, often attributed to tense, hard living, took more lives than any other ailment during April, 1947, according to the latest monthly death report. A total of 3397 persons succumbed to heart trouble, it was pointed out. Cancer, the second biggest destroyer of human lives, claimed 1153 victims during the same month, the report showed. Other death statistics were: cerebral hemorrhages, 689; nephritis, 628; pneumonia, 465; tuberculosis, 286; puerperal cases, 19; diphtheria, six; measles, four; whooping cough, eight.

The department went on to show that even good health is not a guarantee of long life. Home accidents alone proved fatal to 161 persons during April. Accidental falls accounted for 103 deaths, while the remainder were caused by burns, asphyxiation, poisoning, injuries from firearms and agriculture and domestic machines.

Natives of Germany, Japan, Austria and Korea will be given an opportunity to set "Local Government in Action," a movie on democratic small town civic life in Pennsylvania. The film, prepared by the department of internal affairs, will be run off with dialogue in the languages of those countries. Secretary William S. Lavengood explained "this picture was made to give Pennsylvania people a better understanding of home rule and its importance in our Republican form of government. It is gratifying, he said, to find that it is to be used to teach the people of less favored nations the benefits of the American system of self-government."

Barnhart received a fracture of his left leg and his wife and Miss Anne Riley who were in his car also were injured. He is in the Ellwood City hospital.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY
BELLEFONTE, Pa., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Police said today that Michael J. Schreiber, 33, of Burnham, was being held under $1,000 bail to appear before the Centre county grand jury in connection with the fatal shooting of his brother-in-law in a hunting accident.

Schreiber will be charged with shooting a human in mistake for game, police said. He fatally wounded Marlow Weirick, 23, of Lewisburg, last Wednesday, while they were hunting near State College, they added.

Rangoon is the capital of Burma. Burma is 261,619 square miles in area (including the Shan States), and in 1931 the population was estimated as 14,667,146.

With a nice crowd of members taking part in the activities of the afternoon and evening, the annual picnic of the Mahoning-Shenango Valley Engineers society, held at the pump station grounds of the City of New Castle Water company, proved an enjoyable event.

The members enjoyed the cool shade of the trees and the fine picnic layout, the festivities getting under way at one o'clock with an afternoon of sports being outlined. Some nice prizes were given to the winners of these various events.

Afterwards an appetizing menu of fish and corn was enjoyed by the members, which delighted the inner man.

President Harold L. Yost had named Russ Forney as general chairman, and the Lockley brothers, S.D. Elroy and Joe, had charge of the sports. Joe Lasky was in charge of the eats, and Tom Baum collected a fine array of prizes.

Residents along a short stretch of road less than a mile in length, known as Route 37081, south of Bessemer, will soon have a new black top road to replace the old dirt road that presently exists.

Workmen of the State Highway department began this morning to excavate for the new road. The road will be straightened in spots and some relocation will take place, it is reported by Alfred Martin, county superintendent of highways.

Many New Castle and Lawrence county residents took to the air as passengers on planes at the airport on Sunday.

Gourmets of ancient Rome frequently ate an apple as the last course at dinner.

National Gymanfa To Attract Many

New Castle To Be Well Represented In Akron, O., August 31 For Song Festival

HENRY T. JONES

New Castle will be well represented in Akron, O., August 31 when the national Gymanfa Gnu will be held in the Armory. Several hundred are expected to attend from here, many of them going on Saturday night, August 30, to attend the Nolson Lawen, or Happy Night.

The capacity of the Akron Armory will undoubtedly be taxed. From all over the eastern United States and Canada men and women of Welsh birth and extraction will attend the song festival.

Henry T. Jones, President

Henry T. Jones of New Castle is the national president of the Gymanfa Gnu association and has been in office since 1941 when the national Gymanfa was held here. The general chairman of the day is Ernest G. Harris of Akron.

Rev. Thomas J. Jones of New Castle has been asked to serve as chairman of the afternoon session and has accepted. The evening session will be presided over by Joseph Thomas, vice president of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company. The musical director of the day is William Hughes of Scranton, Pa.

The Nolson Lawen or Happy Night will take place at 7:30 p. m. EST in the Mayflower Hotel. Judge Owen Roderick of Akron, O., will be the chairman of this event. There will be group singing, solos, short speeches, and an old fashioned tea party at the conclusion of it.

For the soloists of the Gymanfa Gnu Miss Margaret Tann Williams of Cardiff, South Wales, and Wilfred Smith of Miami, Fla., will be heard. The organist for the day will be Miss Jane Rhannon Thomas of Lynchburg, Va., and the pianist will be Miss Jennie Lloyd of Rhymney, South Wales.

SPRAY SCHOOLS FOR CONTROL OF FLIES

Spraying small rural schoolhouses with DDT a week or two in advance of the fall reopening for control of flies is suggested as a health precaution.

This new insecticide has given effective fly control around farm buildings, including farm homes, dairy barns, and chicken houses, in a number of extension demonstrations, throughout the state.

Flies often congregate on schoolhouses in quest of particles of food dropped from school lunches and unless controlled become a nuisance as well as a health menace.

Spray should be applied to the walls, ceilings, and windows only. To avoid much visible residue, the miscible DDT concentrate should be used, diluted with water. The dilution depends upon the type of sprayer used.

With a power sprayer, use one quart of 25 to 30 per cent miscible DDT added to 10 gallons of water. If a small garden-type pressure sprayer is used one quart of the same type of DDT should be used in 3 to 5 gallons of water.

The spray application should be so planned that one quart of the miscible DDT covers approximately 1,000 square feet of surface. A 5 per cent household DDT spray also is effective, but will cost considerably more.

Be careful not to apply the DDT to the skin. If any is spilled on any body surface these parts should be washed thoroughly with soap and water as soon as possible.

Foreign Brides Catch On Fast

HARRISBURG.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's foreign war brides were catching on fast to the American way of cooking and keeping house—with the help of the State Department of Public Instruction.

Dr. A. Pauline Sanders, chief of Home Economics, reported courses for war brides were underway and enrollment was expected to increase when schools reopen in September.

Dr. Sanders said Miss Bessie Reitz, Northumberland County Economics' advisor, originated the training as part of the activities of the Sunbury chapter of the Red Cross. Special nutrition classes grew out of the Red Cross meetings, she said, and then weekly meetings with four-hour study periods were organized in brides' homes.

Courses included home-making, dress making, consumer buying and family relationships. Although classes were conducted in strictly the American manner, one custom from the old country was retained—time out for tea during the four-hour study periods.

PLAN TO TAKEOFF

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—George Truman and Clifford V. Evans, Jr., pilots of the two Piper Cub round-the-world planes, today planned their takeoff from Meeks Field, Reyjavik, Iceland, for Prestwick, Scotland.

William Strohmeier, flight manager, said the fliers arrived at Iceland last night from Blue West 1, Greenland, where they were delayed more than a week by attacks of influenza and bad weather.

Truman of Los Angeles and Evans Jr. of Washington, D. C., started their flight from Teterboro, N. J., August 9.

John says these freight trains are considered the fastest in the world. This is the greatest engine he has ever driven; it has a 74-inch drive and carries 250 pounds of steam and takes heavy loads at high speed. Engines are numbered 5650 to 5664.

Distance from this city to Willard is 152 miles and the train is scheduled to reach there in three hours and 32 minutes, which requires a speed of 60 miles per hour at some points.

Study Effects Of New Drug

CHICAGO. — (INS) — Scientists are studying a Chicago-manufactured drug capable of blocking out pain without leaving the patient suffering from the annoying and often dangerous side effects of such analgesics as morphine.

The compound, known as AN-148, first was synthesized in Germany and is now being manufactured by the Abbott Laboratories.

Early tests show it can successfully replace morphine in some cases.

Morphine has been the most powerful and most rapid pain-reliever known to medicine but at the same time, one of the most perilous.

The Mayo Brothers' clinic at Rochester, Minn., reports promising results with AN-148 as a morphine substitute.

Reports indicate that patients with chronic ulcerative colitis and severe generalized abdominal cramps suffered better after having been administered AN-148.

Organize New Citizen Group

PHILADELPHIA. — (INS) — "Forces United," a new non-partisan better citizenship organization, designated to make Philadelphia the center of democracy as strongly as Moscow is the communist center has been formed in Philadelphia.

Membership in "Forces United" is open to all persons of every race, creed and political persuasion, who believe in Democracy. Signing of the Organization's creed took place in Independence Hall on July the Fourth.

Among the signers were Walter D. Fuller, Curtis Publishing Co., George W. Elliott, Chamber of Commerce, Harry Feniger, AFL, Melvin M. Forney, Third Baptist Church, and E. Washington Rhodes editor of the Philadelphia Tribune.

West Coast City 'Flyingest Town'

KENT, Ore. — (INS) — This flat-as-an-airport plateau of eastern Oregon claims the "flyingest town" in the country with one plane for every six people.

Kent is just a cluster of a church, grange hall, gas station, country store and elevator and four farms around the edge, each with a plane and a landing strip, for its population of 35.

National Average — 1 to 1600

That the national average is only one plane to 1,600 people doesn't bother Kent's flying farmers, who instead of driving cars saunter to their planes and take off, even from the highway. It's that kind of country.

They use their planes to salt their stock, count calves, inspect grain, and "everything but plowing."

And the nearest town is only 20 minutes by air instead of long dusty hours.

'Wine Elm' Scene Of Gala Evenings

PETERSBURG, Ill. — (INS) — The "wine elm," a Saturday night setting used years ago by Petersburg "young bloods" is broken and twisted — the victim of a storm.

Old timers recall when Beau Brummels and flappers of the day would buy a keg of wine from a nearby vineyard, carry it under the spreading elm and proceed with merry-making.

Outside City Limits

Since the "wine elm" was outside city limits, the sheriff declared himself powerless when called in by disapproving people to break up the parties.

The city council then took action and changed Petersburg boundaries to include the spreading branches of the tree in city territory which ended the gala evenings under the "wine elm" — and left only memories.

Undertake Novel Weather Program

ST. LOUIS. — (INS) — A research program will be undertaken soon by St. Louis University which may lead to development of a new method of weather forecasting.

The program, expected to last eighteen months, will consist of a study of oscillations in the atmosphere. The work will be directed by the Rev. James B. MacLachlan, S. J., dean of the Institute of Geophysical Technology at the university. It will be underwritten by a $25,000 grant from the Navy.

Two Triangles Established

The project calls for establishment of two triangular observation systems. A small one probably will be installed in the university's seismological station at

DROP IN RELIEF

HARRISBURG, Aug. 25.—(INS)—The department of public assistance today reported a drop of 369 persons from relief rolls during the week ended August 16.

Enrollments totaled 300,396 at the end of the week compared with 300,796 during the previous period, the department said.

State Capitol

Family Size Will Decrease

Such Is Prediction Of State Planning Board For Next Generation

SALARY BOOSTS FOR STATE EMPLOYEES

HARRISBURG, Aug. 25.—(INS)—The average size of families in Pennsylvania is declining gradually during the past 50 years, was expected to shrink more rapidly during the next generation. The state planning board reported families averaged fewer than four persons in 1940 compared with five members in 1880. The creation of a relatively large number of new families since the war will cause the size of families to drop quite markedly, the board predicted.

A severe fuel shortage this winter has been forecast by the Anthracite Institute. In its weekly bulletin, the institute pointed out, no reclaimed coke will be available this year and that domestic coke will be scarce. Wood supplies were down and the bituminous coal production would not be adequate to meet demands, it was explained. Total output of hard coal from "aarely" size upwards would approximate 47,000,000 tons, a nine per cent drop from last year, the institute predicted. Consumers were even confronted with an oil shortage, it added.

Salary boosts were slated to come through momentarily for most of the state's 40,000 workers. Governor Duff has notified all departments to proceed with hikes provided in the budget. Increases will range from five to 10 per cent, but will not be guaranteed for all employees. Duff emphasized that only deserving workers would enjoy boosts.

Army Recruiting Station Changed In Designation

It was announced here today by the local Army recruiting office that the U. S. Army Recruiting Station has been redesignated as the U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting station.

This change was ordered by higher headquarters as a result of the Armed Service Unification Bill recently signed by President Truman which established a separate air force among its armaments.

The redesignation will not alter present activities of the recruiting office or the duties of the local Army and Air Force recruiters.

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Director George Sherman is a happy man now that his daughter, 16, has completely outgrown her bobby-sox idolatry of Frank Sinatra.

Not that George doesn't like Frank, he does.

He explained: "Do you know what she used to do? She'd lay on the floor with her head right up against the loud-speaker whenever his program was on."

Could Scream Too

"That was all right, except that she would scream simultaneously with all the young girls in the studio audience."

"She had it timed just pat. It would practically startle you out of your chair, believe me."

George, who is directing "River Lady" at Universal-International, sighed and said:

"I'm glad that phase of her young life is over."

Mitchell Can Pitch

The other night Cameron Mitchell pitched the last four innings of a benefit game between the Hollywood Stars and the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League. The Stars won, 4 to 3.

Cam is a very fine actor from the New York stage who's had some excellent parts since he was signed by M-G-M. Having him pitch was no gag. He is so good that the Detroit Tigers this spring offered him a contract with one of their biggest farm clubs.

No Bit Player

Cam was very happy about the victory until he read the papers the next day. One of them referred to him as a "bit player," which is worse than calling a reporter a journalist.

Said Cam: "If they could only have referred to me as an actor. That one remark took away all the enjoyment I had in the game."

Five Generations In Local Family

From Lowellville, Ohio, comes word to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gerlach of Harbor road, of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, who has been named Doreen Yvonne.

Mrs. Lewis is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerlach, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Black of Lowellville. Mrs. Lewis' great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Plummer Black of Edinburg, and great-great-grandfather is J. S. Boriz of Harrisville. Mr. Lewis' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elson Lewis of Titusville.

NEW "WATCHDOG" GUARDS AGAINST AIRLINER SHORTS

PITTSBURGH.—(INS)—A new automatic watchdog to guard against electric short circuits in the new Martin 2-4-2 luxury airliner was revealed in Pittsburgh.

When a crossed or shortened line occurs, the device automatically shuts off the electric generator involved to prevent damage. The balanced control unit, working on the basis of magnetic fields created around current flowing through a cable, is concentrated in a metal box four inches long.

GIRLS ANSWER CALLS QUICKLY

CHESTER, Ill.—(INS)—Telephonists in Chester, recently were shocked when they put the receiver to their ears.

It wasn't an electric shock. Nor was it someone on the party line giving out with "the latest."

It was simply this: The operator answered immediately with "number please."

It seems that a private survey made by the Illinois Commercial Telephone company showed that Chester's answering time averaged 4.3 seconds. This is longer than the time required.

Girls Got 'Popping Mad'

The girls became popping mad. In reply to the survey they set what may be a new indoor world's record for operators.

They responded so quickly to the blinking light that callers forgot the number they intended to place.

One user said he heard "number please" before he got the receiver to his ear.

Chester's phone operators now rank among the quickest in the company's ranks, and the girls have now relaxed and stopped fighting over who gets to respond first to that "blinking" light.

Hospital Attacks Old-Age Ailments

CHICAGO.—(INS)—Pain and suffering will vanish from the lives of middle-aged and older patients, if a newly planned Chicago hospital achieves its goal.

The institution will be devoted almost exclusively to research and treatment of such diseases as rheumatism, kidney ailments, and mental conditions, which usually attack the aged.

Chicago's Mercy hospital will make these problems its special targets. According to Dr. Andrew E. Ivy, vice president of the University of Illinois and a former Mercy interne, it will be well equipped for the purpose.

Dr. Ivy said the new building will have 30,000 feet of laboratory and research space, which is more than three times as much as any other Chicago hospital. He added:

"Present plans include an entire floor devoted to the study of the causes and cures of ailments of the middle-aged and aged. Medical science has extended the life expectancy figure from 45 years to 65 years and now we will try to take out the pain."

Students Help To Build Dormitories

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Veterans at Pennsylvania State College literally have carried on with "home" work during summer vacation months.

More than 500 student-veterans have helped build two dormitories designed to house 1000 persons and a semi-permanent housing project to accommodate an additional thousand enrollees, it was reported today by the college.

Ninety-three still were on the job, according to project managers, and others may be retained after the 1947-48 term opens in the fall. Most of the laborers were married men, he added.

The dormitories were estimated to cost $6,000,000 while the settlement of temporary homes was pegged at $1,000,000.

Catches Fish;

Breaks His Leg

CHICAGO.—(INS)—Theodore Olecho left Chicago for Menomonee, Wis., this summer determined to catch a couple of big ones on his vacation fishing trip.

Olecho returned home with a splendid 40-inch northern pike but he had to break a leg to land it.

Pike Seized Bait

The pike seized Olecho's bait in the Red river with such a jerk that it dragged Olecho right off his feet. As he fell, the angler fractured his left leg against a log. Unable to get up, he continued to play the fish and eventually hauled him in.

A passing youth heard Olecho's shouts and helped him to the hospital.

When the flying squirrel extends its arms forward and out and its hind legs backward and out, for gliding, its body takes on almost a square form.

Embryo Dentists Facing New Tests

CHICAGO.—(INS)—So you want to be a dentist?

Today it takes more than just a desire, says the Journal of the American Dental Association in its August issue. The prospective student must pass a dental aptitude testing program.

The plan is being conducted throughout the country in order to test future doctors of dental surgery.

Two objectives are planned: (1) To collect a description of students entering dentistry today. (2) To determine among the applicants those best suited for a dental school education.

Besides being able to understand long words, students must be able to visualize patterns and relationships.

Thus when the student becomes a dentist, he will be able to put his fingers on the right trouble spot in your mouth and rattle off the name of the tooth that ails you in apple-pie order.

Included in the aptitude test is a quiz on the ability of using hands and fingers skillfully and dexterously. General intellectual ability counts, too.

On July 1, 1951, the United States Post Office department put on sale the first adhesive postage stamp with a value of 1 cent. New and reduced domestic postage rates went into effect on that date, and the 1-cent value was issued principally to prepay printed circular mail and drop letters delivered locally.

DODGING HAY FEVER

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—(INS)—This is small comfort for tear-laden, sniffing hay-fever sufferers in Pennsylvania.

Dr. Edward P. Claus—and definitely not Santa Claus—offers this consolation to Pennsylvanians:

"If you can manage to live at 8000 feet altitude until frost, you won't have a sniffle of hay fever."

All of which is fine, but where can you live at 8000 feet in Pennsylvania?

Mystery Witness In Overell Case

SANTA ANA, Calif., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Defense counsel for Heirress Beulah Louise Overell and her boy friend, George R. Gollum, boasted today of a mystery witness who would quickly shatter the state's circumstantial case against the young defendants.

William B. Belme, of Gollum's staff, asserted that one of the first defense witnesses would "to all intents and purposes nullify the entire prosecution case."

However, Belme declined to give even a hint of the identity of this ace-in-the-hole witness whose testimony allegedly is going to blast the case so painstakingly built up by Prosecutor Eugene D. Williams in nine weeks of testimony by 50 prosecution witnesses.

The state charges that Miss Overell and Gollum, moved by "greed, lust and frustration," killed her parents, the Walter E. Overells, aboard the Overell yacht last March 15.

Nine V.A. Offices Will Be Closed

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Nine Veterans Administration offices in Western Pennsylvania will be closed within the next 30 days, A. R. Guyler, manager of the Pittsburgh VA office, announced today. Guyler said itinerant contact service would be substituted for full-time services in the following towns:

New Kensington, Bedford, Beaver Falls, Clearfield, Indiana, Ridgway, Punxsutawney, Warren and Waynesburg.

Dismissal of 131 VA employees in the area, in an economy move, forced the closings, Guyler said. The McKeesport VA office also will be closed, but veterans registered there will be accommodated at the Pittsburgh office.

The personnel reduction also will result in transfer of most of the record-keeping functions now performed in sub-regional offices at Erie, Johnstown and Wheeling to the regional office in Pittsburgh.

STOCK MARKET

TRADING SLOW
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—A soft tone prevailed in the stock market today in continued slow trading. Only 150 thousand shares changed hands in the first hour and the second period was even quieter.

Extreme losses ran to about a point. Among the weaker issues were Youngstown Sheet & Tube, J. I. Case, International Harvester, U. S. Steel and Bethlehem. Motors were heavy and chemicals took a turn for the worse near noon. Fractions were clipped from active rubbers, oils, aviation and amusements. Ralls eased. Communications were mixed with American Telephone higher.

Bond and curb shares slipped. Cotton declined.

Army Air Force To Seek Record

Will Seek To Better Recent Record Made By U. S.
Navy Fliers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The Army Air Forces have nothing but congratulations today for the Navy and the Navy's new air speed record, but AAF officers let it be known they don't intend to take it sitting on the ground.

An AAF spokesman said: "We are only too happy to have the Navy take the record, and keep it in this country."

And in the next breath he added: "But if you think that means we are not going to stay in the business of going after speed records, you are mistaken."

The AAF also denied that Navy Commander Turner P. Caldwell, Jr., who flew a jet-powered Douglas D-558 to a world record of 640.7 miles per hour at Muroc, Calif., caught them with their flaps down.

Air Force officers pointed out that they had men and planes at Muroc all during the Navy preparations and during the flight itself.

May Break Record

The AAF thinks it has two planes which might break the navy record. They are the Lockheed P-80R and the Republic P-44, both jet powered, and both operational planes.

AAF Public Relations officers, in the interests of inter-service harmony, carefully refrained from pointing out the D-558 was designed for pure research and could not be considered operational.

But they were far from unhappy when someone else brought up the subject.

And they asserted that no official speed records would be sought by the Army's XS-1—an experimental trans-sonic ship that is launched from a B-29. They are sure, however, that the XS-1 could surpass 640 miles per hour, or even 653.4 miles, speed of the D-558 on the fastest of the four runs made in the official speed attempt.

The XS-1 carries only enough fuel for about four minutes flight at top speed, and while the speed runs could be made in this time, the turns and takeoff could not.

One of the planes the Army pins its hopes on, the P-80R, held for two months the world's record of 623.738 miles per hour, only to have it eclipsed by the Navy.

With further refinements, the AAF said, this ship might exceed the new record.

The P-44 has never participated in a publicly announced speed run, but it has been clocked unofficially at 629 miles per hour in an operational flight between two eastern cities.

Cemetery Heads To Confer Here

Cemetery superintendents of Pennsylvania and Ohio will be in New Castle, September 11 and 12 for the first conference of such officials it was announced today.

The conference is under the sponsorship of the Keystone Cemetery Owners' Association, the state organization and is for the purpose of improving methods, setting policy and exchanging views.

This is the first time such a conference has been tried and New Castle was honored by being selected as the site. Ross D. Rosenberger, one of the officials of the KCOA, said today: "The Castleton hotel will be the scene of the seminar to be held and Castle View Burial Park will be the site for the physical demonstrations of new cemetery methods."

State College Veterans Help To Build Homes

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Aug. 25.—Veterans at the Pennsylvania State college this summer have been doing a new kind of home work—helping to build homes.

More than 500 Penn State students have sought summer work on dormitory construction projects, according to Mary Frances Gregory of the college placement service.

Two permanent dormitories that will house 1000 students are being constructed at a cost of $6,000,000 and a $1,000,000 semi-permanent housing project for 1000 more students is nearing completion.

E. H. Sharp, project manager for Henry E. Baton, Inc., of Philadelphia, builders of the permanent dormitories says that 75 students now are working mostly as laborers.

He added that some probably would be kept on a part-time basis after the regular session opens in the fall. Eighteen students are working on the semi-permanent dormitories project.

Half of the men inquiring about work on the dormitories are married veterans, according to Miss Gregory. Many of them live in trailers on the campus.

COIN CLUB WILL MEET THIS EVENING

New Castle Coin Club will have its monthly meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A.

Several visitors are expected at tonight's meeting, and some interesting displays are looked for. The club's meetings are open to anyone interested in the collection of coins.

"Lamia" is a poem by Keats of a young man who married a lamia (serpent) which had assumed the form of a beautiful woman.
